Sir,

I am directed to state that the marginally noted Govt of India Pro: note stands in the name of the Dewan of Mysore for the time being & held by the Bank of Madras on behalf of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami
temple at Nanjungud.
As the interest accruing thereon being utilized solely for a religious purpose I am to request that the Collector of the civil and military station Bangalore may be kindly instructed to furnish this office with a certificate exempting the Security

Office of the Comptroller, ~~Mysore~~ Government, Dated Bangalore, the 28 February 1907

To

L. Anantasawmy Rao, Esq, B.A., Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Muzrai Department.

Sir,

In returning herewith the Income tax exemption certificate (Form D dated 31st January 1907) received with your letter No.3934 dated 15th February 1907. I have the honour to state that the date from which the exemption from income tax is to take effect has not been mentioned, as usual in red ink at the top of the certificate by the Collector of the Civil & Military Station. Without such an endorsement the Bank will apply the exemption from the tax only from 31st January 1907, the date of issue of the certificate and not from a prior date. As the interest realised for the half year ended 30-12-'06 is to be credited to the Temple for religious purpose, I request that you will be so good as to obtain from the Collector of the Civil & Military Station, an endorsement on the certificate, that the exemption is to have effect from 30th January 1906, and return the certificate to this office for transmission to the Bank.
